51th Annual Conference
November 15-17, 2017 Renaissance Riverview Plaza Hotel, Battle House Hotel and Mobile Convention Center

You are cordially invited to attend the 51th Annual Alabama Counseling Association Conference to be held at the Renaissance Riverview Plaza Hotel, Battle House Hotel and Mobile Convention Center. The Conference with a theme of "Back to Life," once again promises to be an outstanding event with opportunities for you to hear noted national speakers, attend workshop content sessions presented by your peers and enjoy the renewal of friendships and the making of new ones. Mark November 15-17 on your calendar, send in your registration early, and join the 1200 counselors expected to attend this rewarding event.

Speakers

Joe Sanok

Joe Sanok is a speaker, licensed professional counselor, business consultant, and podcaster. He is also the owner of the group practice, Mental Wellness Counseling in Traverse City, MI. Joe has the #1 podcast for counselors, The Practice of the Practice Podcast and a blog of the same name (<http://practiceofthepractice.com/>).

Joe is a writer for PsychCentral and has been featured on the Huffington Post, Forbes, MSN, GOOD Magazine, Reader's Digest, Bustle, and Yahoo News. He is a keynote speaker, author of five books, and a top-consultant for private practice owners.

His favorite moments are when he has new ideas and applications or when he's playing with his three and six year old girls.

Mary A. Fukuyama

Mary A. Fukuyama received her PhD in Counseling Psychology from Washington State University and devoted her career to working with university students at the University of Florida. She served as a counselor, supervisor, teacher and trainer at the UF Counseling and Wellness Center for 34 years, and is now retired Clinical Professor Emerita.

She is a member of the University of Florida's Center for Spirituality and Health and taught a graduate seminar on spiritual issues in multicultural counseling. She co-authored two textbooks: Integrating Spirituality into Multicultural Counseling with Todd Sevig and Consciousness-Raising: A Primer for Multicultural Counseling (3rd Ed) with Woodrow Parker. She has numerous publications and conference presentations on multicultural counseling and spiritual themes in counseling.

As a "P.K." (Preacher's Kid) with a multiracial background, she has pursued existential questions and socio-cultural challenges throughout her life. She is a member of the Racial Justice Task Force of the United Church of Gainesville and enjoys travel, visiting family with her partner of 26 years, doing art, playing music, spending time with her sun conure parrot Bebop, and pursuing a new hobby... playing the ukulele.

Craig Boykin

Craig Boykin is a speaker, author of five books, and consultant with a master's degree in Justice Administration and Biblical Studies. He is currently completing his doctorate in Adult Education at Auburn University. Craig's story of determination and personal accountability is one that moves, touches and inspires audiences. His down-to-earth personality endears him to those that come across his path. His message is very simple... Change Is Possible... for oneself and one's community.

Featured on talk shows and in magazines and a recipient of various awards, Craig delivers an inspiring message of releasing mediocrity and living one's best life. It is a message that Craig has learned from his own life challenges, and one he is helping others apply to their lives. Craig's personal mission in life is to provide hope to individuals who feel that their current situation is hopeless.

Tomeka W. McGhee

Tomeka W. McGhee received her doctorate of counselor education from Auburn University and is a licensed professional counselor, national certified counselor, and a global career development facilitator. She is currently a core faculty member of Walden University's Clinical Mental Health Counseling program. Beginning with ALCA in 2005, she was an outstanding graduate student recipient and Emerging Leader then served in a number of leadership roles with Chapter VII and as President of ALACES. Through the years, she's contributed to the field of counseling through volunteering her services to support local school counselors particularly in rural areas, volunteering as a Disaster Mental Health Counselor with Red Cross, volunteering as a group leader of community support groups, educating counselors, clergy, and lay persons through numerous local, state, and regional presentations, seminars, and workshops, and participating in scholarly research.

Outside her professional life, she and her husband of 24 years spend a great deal of time traveling the state to numerous softball, baseball, basketball, and football games in support of their three children. In her continual pursuit of staying in the present moment and staying connected to Life, she enjoys times of solitude and contemplation, attending silent retreats at monasteries, reading religious and spiritual texts, taking cultural excursions, and engaging laughter and community with her support network of family, friends, and mentors.

Conference Events & Highlights

AWARDS BREAKFAST

We will kick off the conference with the general awards breakfast on Wednesday morning. It will be sponsored by the Alabama Homebuilders Association. Join us to honor our volunteers, leaders, workers and those who have distinguished themselves during the past year.

OPENING SESSION

Conference activities will begin on Wednesday morning with a full scale opening session and keynote speaker. You may pick up your name tag or use your registration confirmation to enter the opening session.

DINING OPPORTUNITIES

The City of Mobile, the Mobile Convention and Visitors Bureau, and local businessmen have worked diligently to add dining options for the Conference Complex. Both the Renaissance Riverview Plaza Hotel and The Battle House Hotel have very pleasing restaurants. Both have fine dining experiences and The Battle House Restaurant in particular enjoys a wide reputation for the quality and elegance of its service. In addition there are outside restaurants around the area. Dauphin Street (Mobile's entertainment district) is only a short walk away.

PARKING

Valet Parking is available at the Renaissance Battle House for $19 per night. Valet for Day Parking is $14.00. Valet Parking is available at the Renaissance Riverview Plaza for $20 per night. Valet for Day Parking is $12.00. Self-parking in the parking deck is available for $15 per night. For self-parking, please obtain a pass from the front desk at check-in. Parking at the Convention Center is $5.00 per day. Overnight parking is available at $10.00 per day but you must arrange it in advance.

Professional Development Hours for ALCA Conference

The Alabama Counseling Association has been approved by NBCC as an Approved Continuing Education Provider ACEP No. 2001. Programs that do not qualify for NBCC credit are clearly identified. The Alabama Counseling Association is solely responsible for all aspects of this program.

The procedure for requesting NBCC hours for the 2017 ALCA Annual Conference is as follows: The Professional Development Clock Hours Request Form will be included in the 2017 ALCA Annual Conference Program Book. Return the form along with a check for $5.00 ($20.00 for non-members) made payable to ALCA to the address provided on the form. The deadline for receipt of Professional Development requests is January 31, 2018. Certificates for Annual Conference attendance will be mailed no later than March 31, 2018. Requests submitted after January 31, 2018, will cost $10.00. Replacement certificates will cost $10.00.

You must be registered for the conference to claim NBCC hours credit. NBCC hours will not be issued until check clears bank. You may earn as many as 14 clock hours for the total conference. Presenters may not receive NBCC hours credit for their own presentations.

CERTIFICATES OF ATTENDANCE ONLY MAY BE OBTAINED FROM THE ALCA OFFICE.
