60 YEARS STRONG:
UNITED IN IDENTITY, ADVOCACY, AND PURPOSE

NBCC - PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT HOURS

The Alabama Counseling Association has been approved by NBCC as an Approved Continuing Education Provider ACEP No. 2001. Programs that do not qualify for NBCC credit are clearly identified. The Alabama Counseling Association is solely responsible for all aspects of this program.

The procedure for requesting NBCC hours for the 2026 ALCA Annual Conference is as follows:
The link to the Professional Development Clock Hours Request Form will be included in the 2026 ALCA Annual Conference Program Book, the Conference App, and the ALCA website.
After the conference, please complete the form.
The deadline for receipt of continuing education certificate requests is December 31, 2026. Certificates will be emailed no later than March 31, 2027.

The cost of continuing education certificates is INCLUDED in your conference registration!
Requests submitted after December 31, 2026, will cost $30.00 for members and $40.00 for non-members.

You must be registered for the conference to claim NBCC hours credit.

You may earn as many as 14 NBCC contact hours for the total conference.

Presenters may not receive professional development credit for their own presentation(s).

meet our speakers

Dr. Lynn Linde - Chief of Professional Practice, American Counseling Association

Dr. Lynn Linde is the Chief of Professional Practice for the American Counseling Association. She oversees professional issues related to counseling and ethics and is the project lead for the Counseling Compact. She holds a bachelors in Psychology from Clark University and a master's and doctorate in counseling from the George Washington University.

Lynn is an ACA Fellow and served as the 2009-2010 President of ACA, the 2012-2013 Treasurer, in a number of other leadership positions, and was a member of the 2014 ACA Ethics Revision Task Force. Lynn is the recipient of a number of state and national awards, including the Carl Perkins Award, the Counselor Educator Advocacy Award, two Presidential Awards, and a lifetime achievement award from the Maryland Counseling Association. She was awarded the Distinguished Service Award from AASCB in January 2024. She is the author/coauthor of a number of book chapters on ethical/legal issues for counselors and makes frequent presentations on ethics, the Counseling Compact, and current issues in the profession. She has been on staff at ACA since 2016. Her previous positions include being the Director of Clinical Experiences at Loyola University Maryland and core faculty in the school counseling program, Chief of the Student Services and Alternative Programs Branch at the Maryland State Department of Education, the state specialist for school counseling, a local school system counseling supervisor, and a school counselor.

Dr. Spencer Niles, Professor, The College of William & Mary Co-Director of the THRIVE Research and Intervention Center

Dr. Spencer G. Niles is a professor of counselor education and co-director of the THRIVE Research and Intervention Center. He served as Dean (2013-2020) for the School of Education at W&M where he was ranked as the 11th most influential dean of education in the United States. Previously, Niles served as Visiting Professor at Johns Hopkins University, Distinguished Professor and Department Head for Educational Psychology, Counseling, and Special Education at Penn State and a Fulbright Scholar at the Finnish Institute for Education Research. Niles also served as Professor and Assistant Dean in the School of Education, University of Virginia. He is the current Editor for Counselor Education and Supervision and served as Editor for the Journal of Counseling and Development and The Career Development Quarterly. Niles has authored 155 publications and delivered over 170 presentations. He is the recipient of the American Counseling Association's Extended Research Award, David Brooks Distinguished Mentor Award, Thomas Hohenshil Publication Award, Thomas J. Sweeney Award for Visionary Leadership and Advocacy Award, and President's Award. He has also received Chi Sigma Iota International's Legacy Award, the Eminent Career Award from the National Career Development Association, the Outstanding Alumni Award from Penn State, and the Legacy Award from the University of Alabama. Niles is a Fellow of the American Counseling Association and the National Career Development Association. He was President of Chi Sigma Iota and President of the National Career Development Association. He is an Honorary member of the Japanese Career Development Association, the Italian Association for Education and Vocational Guidance, Lifetime Honorary Member of the Ohio Career Development Association, and received the University of British Columbia's Noted Scholar Award. He served as a consultant in Argentina, Australia, China, New Zealand, Italy, India, Finland, Portugal, Japan, United Arab Emirates, Ireland, Turkey, South Africa, Canada, Qatar, Sweden, Spain, Belgium, Rwanda, Scotland, Switzerland, Singapore, Taiwan, Denmark, and Estonia.

Dr. John Sommers-Flanagan, Professor, University of Montana

John Sommers-Flanagan is a professor of counseling at the University of Montana. He received his doctorate in psychology in 1986, completing his pre-doctoral internship at Upstate Medical Center in Syracuse, NY. In addition to teaching, research and supervision, John also has a small independent practice. Previously, he was the mental health consultant for Trapper Creek Job Corps (2003-2014), served as executive director of Families First Parenting Programs (1995-2003), and was co-host of a radio talk-show on Montana Public Radio titled "What is it with Men?" His work with youth and parents has been captured for educational purposes on many different local and national video productions. John primarily specializes in working with children, parents, and families. He is author or coauthor of over 100 professional publications, including eight books. A sampling of his books include Tough Kids, Cool Counseling (2nd ed., ACA Publications, h2007), Suicide Assessment and Treatment: A Strengths-Based Approach (2021, ACA Publications), Counseling and Psychotherapy Theories in Context and Practice (3rd ed., John Wiley & Sons, 2018), Clinical Interviewing 6th ed., Wiley, 2017), and How to Listen so Parents will Talk and Talk so Parents will Listen (Wiley, 2011). John is widely sought as a keynote speaker and professional workshop presenter throughout the United States and Canada. John is featured in many different counseling and psychotherapy training videos published by Psychotherapy.net, Alexander Street Press, PESI, and John Wiley & Sons. In 2018, he produced a three-part, 7.5 hour suicide training video with Psychotherapy.net. John has published many newspaper columns, Op-Ed pieces, and has had articles in Psychotherapy Networker, Counseling Today, and Slate Magazine.

In his spare time, John loves to run (slowly), dance (poorly), laugh (loudly - usually at himself), and produce homemade family music videos.

advanced registration

Complete the Advanced Registration Form online https://alca.memberclicks.net/2026conference or mail (with your separate check or credit card information) by November 1, 2026. A registration confirmation will be sent. PAYMENT RECEIPTS WILL BE EMAILED TO ALL MEMBERS. DO NOT MAIL REGISTRATION FORM AFTER NOVEMBER 1.

You must be an active member of ALCA to be eligible to pay the member's registration fee. ALL PRESENTERS MUST REGISTER FOR THE CONFERENCE. If you are not a current member, complete the membership application online here: https://alca.memberclicks.net/membership-application. If you are unsure of your membership status, log in to your membership account or email the ALCA office at alca@alabamacounseling.org, and they will advise you of your status. Your conference materials will not be presented to you unless membership dues are paid or you have paid the non-member fee. We will accept membership and registration fees at the same time.

All requests for refunds of registration fees must be submitted, in writing, to the Executive Director by October 31, 2026. No refunds will be made after that date. Please remember everyone has a reason if they do not come. We cannot judge among them; please do not ask for a refund after the deadline.

Students, to register at the reduced rate, must be actively engaged in an educational program in counseling, guidance, or student personnel and may not be employed in a counseling-related position. The student's faculty advisor must be designated on the registration form. Students must have paid the appropriate membership dues in order to register.

on-site registration

IMPORTANT******
